Bolsheviki Government In Russia Faces Crisis; Moscow And Petrograd Menaced By Armies

Germans And Austrians, Successful In Big Strike For Vistula, Threatened By The Siberian Hordes

Ludendorff faced a desperate situation when he went from his successes in East Prussia in September, 1914, to rescue the battered remnants of the Austro-Hungarian army and save Silesia, with its vital coal fields and industries, from invasion.

Grand Duke Nicholas, despite the two blows dealt in East Prussia, was concentrating an even more formidable army. Behind the broad Vistula he was gathering some 1,200,000 troops, which were to sweep through the bend of that river in Poland and descend upon the rear of the Austrians and upon Germany.

Ludendorff's problem was to reach the Vistula before this army could cross, at the same time stirring up the Austrians to attempt to regain their lost ground. In his scheme he was favored by a network of strategic railways which Germany had long ago established on the Polish frontier in anticipation of just such movements. He was able to concentrate his forces and start them forward before the Grand Duke could complete his preparations.

The battle which now began was fought on a front of almost 250 miles, stretching from Warsaw southeast to the Carpathians, with the Germans on the north and Austrians on the south. This installment shows how Ludendorff gained the Vistula, but was suddenly forced to change his plans by the Serbs, who debouched from Warsaw and threatened an enveloping movement from the north.

Ludendorff Rebuilt Railways and Rushed Troops to 250 Mile Front.—Got Ahead of Grand Duke Nicholas and His 2,500,000 Men.

THREW ALL HIS MEN INTO BATTLE AND HAD NO RESERVES FOR EMERGENCY

By GENERAL ERICH LUDENDORFF

Each day made it more clear to me that our plan of operations (in the combined German-Austrian advance in Poland and Galicia early in October, 1914) must be for the Austro-Hungarian army to seek a decision south of the Vistula, relieve Przemyśl and cross the San, whilst the group north of the Vistula held back somewhat. This would only be possible if the enemy were to retire behind the Vistula. If he chose to make a strong stand on the west bank, as he might do at any moment, we should be too weak to resist him successfully.

We perfected this plan and after the conference at Neudorf, it had to be altered, both in scope and details. This campaign is distinguished by more vicissitudes than any other, and therefore deserves one of the first places in the annals of war.

Each day prevented the Headquarters Staff with some fresh, difficult decision. The subordinate commanders had to set on their own responsibility. It was a bold plunge into the unknown, and meant hard fighting and cautious withdrawals. Our weak forces were separated by long distances. But all were governed by the same clear, determined aim.

The movements of the troops depended to a great extent on the next step. The insupportable state of the roads and the bad weather were extremely unfavorable conditions for us. Even the great high road from Cracow to Warsaw was knee deep. It had a layer of mud a foot high.

This work required for restoring the roads was enormous and labor scarce. The troops and road-building companies worked indefatigably and accomplished a great deal. When we returned, in the latter half of October, the roads were a totally different aspect. We had done a great work for civilization.

Reds May Be Forced To Flee To Turkestan

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

TODAY'S developments from Russia are of an extremely discouraging character for the Bolshevik regime. General Denikin, whose forces are advancing on a front of about 450 miles through Central Russia, has in the center captured Orel, only 248 miles from Moscow, and the most important railroad center south of the capital. The northwestern army of General Yudenich, also operating on a broad front, is reported to have smashed through the Bolshevik lines west and southwest of St. Petersburg and to be within 50 to 75 miles of Petrograd all along the front. Meanwhile, Kolchak's Siberian armies are improving their advantage along the Tobol river, and now are within a few miles of the boundaries of European Russia, from which they were driven by the recent successful Bolshevik offensive.

Riga is apparently held firmly for the time being by the Letts, who with Estonian assistance effected the successful onslaught of Colonel Axel-Bernmond and his German auxiliaries and have for four days been able to prevent them crossing the Daugava into the main part of Riga. The town to which the Lettish government has returned, is reported to be in several places. Held up in front at Riga, Colonel Axel-Bernmond finds his rear seriously menaced by a new advance of the Letts, who have struck westward from Vilna to Kovno and now threaten the communication of the German troops with Germany.

With the exception of the gap between the Volga and the Siberian frontier, a fairly continuous line of offense is established against the Bolshevik, reaching from the Gulf of Finland, 60 miles beyond Petrograd, south to Dvinsk, thence along the Polish front southward to Gornel, which in turn is barely 75 miles from Chernigov, just captured by General Denikin. This right flank is near Kamensk, 125 miles east of Chernigov, on the Volga.

The Bolshevik leaders, it is reported, are preparing to evacuate Petrograd and should Denikin's advance continue successfully beyond Orel, they may, it is reported, give up the game entirely at Moscow and in Central Russia and retreat into Turkestan.

SAMUEL GOMPERS IS SUFFERING FROM NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is confined to his home here in a state of nervous exhaustion. His temperature this morning was 101 degrees and his physician has ordered him to remain in bed. Announcement of Mr. Gompers' breakdown was made by his secretary when the national industrial conference convened today.

He issued the following statement: "Mr. Gompers returned home from the industrial conference last evening very greatly exhausted and went immediately to bed. His physician, Dr. Henry Parker, was called in to see him. He found Mr. Gompers in a state of nervous exhaustion with a temperature of 101. The doctor said that it would be absolutely necessary for Mr. Gompers to remain in bed."

Mr. Gompers' illness results, labor leaders said, from months of unremitting work at home and abroad in connection with the peace treaty, the international labor congress at Amsterdam and the steel strike.

BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTER OF CARTER GLASS IS ENGAGED

Miss Mary Archer Glass.

Miss Mary Archer Glass, one of the charming and beautiful daughters of Carter Glass, secretary of the treasury, is engaged to be married to John Goumont Boatwright in the near future. Miss Glass and her sister, Augusta, are popular in the younger social set in Washington. Miss Mary was educated in Gunston Hall. Boatwright is a resident of Danville, Va. He recently returned from service overseas.

EMPLOYERS FAIL IN EFFORT TO FORCE AN IMMEDIATE ISSUE OF ARBITRATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—Efforts by the employers' group at the industrial conference to force an immediate issue of labor's proposal that the steel strike be arbitrated, failed today. The labor group, and all of the public group except Judge Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, voting to postpone action until tomorrow. The conference adjourned until 2:30 p. m. tomorrow when the arbitration resolution will be brought to a vote.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—President Wilson will not sanction an amendment of the national industrial conference here until it has exhausted every possible means of finding a solution of the present industrial situation, White House officials said today.

Despite his illness, the president was understood to have been informed of the tense situation in the conference room from the controversy over labor's proposal of arbitration of the steel strike. He was said to feel that this should not endanger the ultimate success of the conference.

PRESIDENT KEEPING IN GENERAL TOUCH WITH GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—President Wilson had a good night's rest and continues to show improvement, despite a slight headache, said a bulletin today by his physicians.

The bulletin follows: "The White House, October 15, 1919, 11:55 a. m.

"The president had a good night's rest, enjoyed his breakfast, and, aside from a slight headache, continues to make improvement. The condition which caused the restlessness of Monday night, and about which Dr. Fox was consulted, gave no trouble during the night.

(Signed) "GRAYSON, "HUTCHINSON, "STUTT"

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—President Wilson, it was learned today, is keeping in general touch with governmental affairs even though Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, is enforcing strictly his prescription of absolute rest.

The manner in which the president is being informed in a general way of the problems now before the nation, was not disclosed, but it was presumed it was through Mrs. Wilson and Dr. Grayson.

Through the aid of Dr. H. A. Fowler, a Washington specialist, the swelling of the prostate gland, which interfered with Mr. Wilson's rest Monday night and yesterday, was reduced late yesterday, and the absence of irritation was expected to be reflected soon in the rapidity of his improvement. The president was described as "better" in the bulletin issued last night by Dr. Grayson.

"Flying Parson" On Return Trip Across America

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Oct. 15.—Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, flying westward on the second lap of the trans-continent air derby, arrived at Thru Vesta field, near here, at 10:11 a. m. (mountain time) this morning.

MINNEAPOLIS, N. Y., Oct. 15.—With Lieutenant B. W. Maynard, the "flying parson," already off from San Francisco on his return trip to Minneapolis in the army air service trans-continent race, three of the fliers who completed the first half of the journey here were ready to "hop off" for San Francisco today if weather permitted.

Two of the three, Major Carl Spatz, and Lieutenant C. E. Kiehl, who flew up and back across the continent from San Francisco, had expressed themselves as not anxious to make the return trip. With another aviator observed the strenuous preparations for their earlier statements probably had been "jockeying" for the lead and a lively race is predicted.

Captain Lowell H. Smith, whose unofficial flying time was lowest of all the fliers in the first half of the race, but who was perilled four hours for a forced landing near Cleveland, also was ready this morning to start on the home bound flight.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Oct. 15.—Forecast of fair weather for most of the day, with the prospect of a "flying parson," would equal, if not surpass, his west bound flying speed on his eastern journey from Battle Mountain, Nevada, today. He clipped off 54 miles yesterday afternoon in his east bound flight from San Francisco.

Three more fliers in the trans-continent reliability test expected to begin their return trip from San Francisco today. They were Lieutenant Alexander Pearson, Jr., Captain J. O. Donaldson and Lieutenant Earl Manvelman. Three more were due to start tomorrow. Captain H. C. Drayton, Lieutenant L. S. Webster and Captain Murray Smith.

ARE CLOSING IN ON REDS

LONDON, Oct. 15.—With General Denikin's Cossacks army advancing from the south and the northwestern Russian forces almost within striking distance of Petrograd, the soviet government of Russia appeared to be facing a crisis.

Bolshevik headquarters at Petrograd were closed last Thursday, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Riga. The northwestern Russian army has apparently crushed Girev's Bolshevik lines over a wide front. Pskov has been captured and it is believed that the forces under General Yudenich also have taken the town of Luga, about 85 miles southwest of Petrograd. The capture of Yamburg, 75 miles from Petrograd, reported on Monday and latest dispatches indicate the line of advance to be nearly 125 miles in length.

On the south the Denikin troops appeared to have approached quite near the town of Tula, which is considered the key to Moscow from that side. A dispatch received here says that Girev's forces have been driven back to the Gomel, the Bolshevik commissaries will flee into Turkestan, taking advantage of a gap between the Denikin and Kolchak forces in the Volga valley.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—General Denikin's anti-Bolshevik army has captured the important city of Orel, together with thousands of prisoners and enormous quantities of material, it was announced in advices received here today.

While Orel is 233 miles south of Moscow, possession of the city will give General Denikin a secure hold on vast stretches of territory in old Russia, as the place is one of the most important railway centers south of the present Russian capital.

Two batteries of Bolshevik artillery fell into General Denikin's hands.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 15.—The Poles have begun an offensive against the Germano-Russian forces in the Baltic region, according to a message received here from Riga. They are reported to have captured Kovno, sixty miles northwest of Vilna, near the Courland border.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 15.—Savage fighting is still going on in the city of Riga between Lithuanian and Latvian troops and the Germano-Russian army which entered the western part of the city last week.

Reports reaching here state that shells have fired a portion of the town and that great damage has been done to the quay and harbor. Many civilians have been killed during the battle.

Dispatches received here state that all the prisoners taken by the Lithuanians have been released.

British warships have become involved in the fighting, having been fired upon by the Germano-Russian forces.

NO CAMPAIGN ON TOBACCO BY THE W. C. T. U.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Contrary to reports that the Women's Christian Temperance Union plans a campaign against tobacco now that liquor has been abolished, neither the state organization at its convention in session here, nor the national convention will take any action along this line.

Asked if there is any possibility of the tobacco question being brought up at the state convention, Mrs. Florence D. Richard, president of the state organization, declared emphatically that there is not.

"That report is wet propaganda, pure and simple," she said.

SECRETARY BAKER TO SPEAK CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 15.—Secretary of War Baker will be the principal speaker tonight at the silver anniversary convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. It is expected he will discuss the threatened coal miners' strike and the industrial situation.

ISSUE CALL FOR STRIKE OF MINERS

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 15.—The order calling all union bituminous coal miners in the country to "cease production of coal at midnight on Friday, October 31, 1919," was issued from the international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here at noon today. The order is signed by John L. Lewis, acting president, and William Green, secretary-treasurer of the miners.

The official strike call permits local unions to assign "a sufficient number of men to remain at work to insure the proper care and protection of all mining properties in conformity with the provisions of district agreements."

It also urges that fullest co-operation be given "the operator to prevent injury to property." And asserts that "under no circumstances should this rule be violated or set aside by local unions."

COMMUNIST PARTY GETS 300 VOTES

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Complete returns compiled today on yesterday's primaries show that the communist party appearing on a ballot here for the first time and running on a platform calling for the soviet form of government, polled an average of less than 300 votes for its three candidates. The total vote cast was 51,000.

Six candidates were chosen out of a field of 18 for three vacancies on the board of councilmen. They were Arthur W. Schneider and Charles M. Heald, present members of the board; Ross Grimes, a state senator; Charles R. Smith, former congressman; Thomas H. McElhin, Jr., and Frank C. Perkins.

Masons Acquire Site For Magnificent New Temple

Purchase Baron Property On Gallia Street East Of Sinton; Celebration Plans

In anticipation of the observance of the One Hundredth Birthday of Aurora Lodge No. 48, F. and A. M., to be held Thursday, October 23, the officers of the local Masonic bodies announce the purchase of a site on the south side of Gallia street, just west of the Mrs. N. W. Evans homestead, near Sinton street, from John Baron, upon which a new temple will be erected.

The property has a frontage on Gallia street of 122 ft. a depth of 236 feet on the east side and a large frontage on Green street. The consideration was $25,576.

This big realty deal is the result of the agreement of an option September 13, by Samuel B. Thompson, trustee. The purchase was authorized at the last meeting of Aurora lodge, held the first Monday of this month. The deal was forwarded to Mr. Baron, who is now in Florida, and the deal was closed at the offices of Charles V. Wertz, a real estate dealer late Tuesday afternoon.

The first temple to be built by the local Masonic lodge was erected at Third and Washington streets. When the present temple was erected, D. Selby.

Fourth and Chillicothe streets, the old one was sold to the congregation of the local Jewish Synagogue.

The contents of the property were postponed last year on account of the war, and the absence of 130 members who were in the service at that time.

At a meeting of the general committee on arrangements, held Tuesday evening, final arrangements for the centennial were completed. There will be a parade in the afternoon, in which Masons from London, Wheelersburg, Lucasville, Chillicothe, Waverly, Manchester, Greenup, Boone, Peebles and West Union will participate. This will be followed by a meeting at the High School Auditorium in the evening. Then there will be a dance at the Baerman Academy of Dancing.

Definite plans for the new temple have not been made. Informal discussion indicates that it will be for Masonic purposes only. It will include all the latest conveniences of a fraternal home.

The committee appointed to purchase a site included: Samuel B. Thompson, A. J. Fuller, John A. Ives, D. A. Grimes, John E. Millard and George D. Selby.

MEMORY CAME BACK WHEN FINE IS PLACED AND BOOTLEGGER IS SOAKED

When Mayor Kaps in police court this morning inquired of Luther Baker, young steelworker, arrested for intoxication and fighting, where he secured his liquor, the latter had a bad memory, but after the court plastered him with a fine of $25, he suddenly awakened and told of buying the spirits from Tom Masterson, a West End cripple.

Masterson was brought in and strenuously denied the charge, but the mayor held that he was guilty and soaked him for a fine of $100 and costs. He was sent to the county jail until paid. In passing sentence on the bootlegger, the court declared war on the liquor traffic and said that every offender convicted of peddling booze would feel the strong arm of the law.

The mayor then suspended $20 of Luther Baker's fine and taxed McKinley Baker the costs. The latter was charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct.

BANQUET AND ENTERTAINMENT TO BE GIVEN SOLDIERS BY BIGELOW CHURCH

Bigelow church has set aside Friday evening to pay honor to the men of the congregation who served in the American army during the great world war, and will endeavor on that night to show in concrete manner that the patriotism of those gallant soldier boys is truly appreciated. At six o'clock a banquet will be served to the soldiers in the church dining room, and a fine menu has been prepared by the ladies in charge of this part of the evening's festivities.

When the feast is over adjournment will be taken to the church auditorium where all of the congregation are expected to gather and enjoy a pleasing program, that has been prepared for the occasion. It is hoped to have a record crowd at the church meeting.

Following the program refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served and a general social time enjoyed.

The officials of the church want every soldier of the World War who belonged to Bigelow congregation to attend the banquet and the entertainment. It is the desire of the entire congregation to show their appreciation of "their soldiers," and it is up to the soldiers to give them this opportunity.

CLASSIFICATION CONCERNS CAPITALIST WELL AS WAGE EARNER, SPEAKER SAYS

"The greatest argument in favor of the tax classification amendment is the fact that no state that has adopted it has contemplated returning to the uniform system," said Webster P. Huntington of Columbus in addressing the Business Men's Association on Tuesday at the Elks Club.

"Classification concerns all the people from the capitalist to the wage earner," he said, "the only thing the opposition offers is an income tax, and I have no doubt that the next step would be an occupational tax to do business. But even with these provisions, we have no assurance that we will get the revenue required to meet the obligations of the state. The state of Ohio at this moment is bankrupt. The only remedy which has at a fair trial elsewhere is classification. Whether it is equally successful in all states or not, there is not a single state which has returned to the uniform system."

"If the farmers of Ohio who are opposed to classification were to go down in Kentucky, they would find that one of every ten farmers there who opposed the amendment are now satisfied with it, and most significant of all is the fact that in a heated political campaign now being carried on in that state, neither party has felt warranted in mentioning taxation as a point for argument."

ASKED TO DECORATE PLACES OF BUSINESS

A letter was read at the Business Men's luncheon Tuesday noon, requesting that the Business men of the city decorate their places of business for the Masonic Centennial celebration, which will be held in this city Thursday, October 23rd.

Masons from all over the state will be in attendance at this inspiring event and it is desired that all places of business put on their "dress suits" in honor of the epochal occasion.

Use Famo for the Hair—As You Use Any Other Medicine—Every Day

FAMO is a medicine for the hair, and should be used as a medicine at least every morning.

Americans have been, and are, notoriously neglectful of both their teeth and their hair.

Result—the almost universal prevalence of the twin scourges—pyorrhea and seborrhea.

Seborrhea is the deadly germ that kills the hair, and only by keeping after it with FAMO can you save your hair and make it grow.

FAMO does unquestionably kill the seborrhea germ—clears the head of this pest; more often than not in a single application.

FAMO does grow new hair, even when people are careless and only apply it infrequently.

But it is not fair to yourself, your hair, or FAMO, to run chances.

And you are running chances, if you use FAMO only once a week, or every now and then.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters, in two sizes—$1 and 55 cents.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhean excretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

COL. DAN MORGAN SMITH

Trinity M. E. church auditorium, Gallia and Office streets, will accommodate the crowd of people who will hear Col. Dan Morgan Smith tonight, the lecture beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. He is considered one of the most prominent lecturers on the American platform and at the same time one of the greatest heroes of the late World's War.

The history of this man reads like a novel. He will tell tonight with all the vivid word pictures at his command the story of the life of a soldier in the trenches—over the top and back into the trenches. The lecture is free and is one of the greatest historical lectures given of the late war.

Feast To Close Thursday

Closing the feast of St. Columba, the Jews of Portsmouth will hold services in their Temple, Third and Washington streets, tonight and Thursday morning. The services tonight will be held at 7:30, those tomorrow will be held at 10 o'clock. Rabbi Leon Frank, of Cincinnati, will conduct the services and preach the sermon.

The feast of St. Columba began a week ago tonight with services in the Temple, which were followed by services Thursday morning and Friday evening in their Temple. Third and Washington streets. Rabbi Frank of Cincinnati said: "As is the custom this feast will last eight days, closing tomorrow with appropriate services."

The feast of St. Columba, or the Jewish Thanksgiving, originated during the wilderness period in the history of Judaism, and has been observed ever since.

WEST SIDE WAGING WAR ON SPOONERS

West Side residents have joined in the campaign to put a stop to the practice of parking their cars on the side of the road, and in the private driveways and yards, and in the public places in the city.

The practice of parking cars on the side of the road, and in the private driveways and yards, and in the public places in the city, is a nuisance to the community and should be stopped.

Several letters have been sent to the city council, and a report will be made to the city council on the matter.

The city council has decided to take action on the matter, and will pass a law to stop the practice of parking cars on the side of the road, and in the private driveways and yards, and in the public places in the city.

A Woman is as Old as She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor." Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weakness of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young but feel young. It cures the weakness and builds you up.

Your druggist can supply you with liquid or tablets; or send ten one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial pkg. of the tablets will be mailed you. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been in use nearly 50 years.

If you wish to know all about yourself, drop a line to Dr. Pierce for free pamphlet on Diseases of Women. Should you desire to consult his medical staff of physicians or ask for information, the same will be cheerfully furnished you wholly without cost and your letter will be treated as sacredly confidential.

THE WORD OPTOMETRIST

THE accepted pronunciation is Op-ton-ist, with the accent on the second syllable. The word means one who is skilled in the detection and correction of errors of vision by the use of glasses. An Optometrist is required by law to pass a strict examination before he is permitted to practice. We have qualified to practice Optometry, and have a service that is up to the minute.

LUDENDORFF

The conditions on the railway were equally difficult. The Kielce line, the most important from our point of view, passed through the Mechow tunnel, which had been destroyed. A firm had already been commissioned to restore it, and the work was proceeding quickly considering the conditions.

This tunnel had a bit more. In November it was destroyed by us. The Russians rebuilt it, but they destroyed it again in the summer of 1917; thereupon we repaired it once and for all.

There were other extensive works to be carried out, as, for example, the conversion of the wide Russian gauge to the normal gauge, and the building of numerous bridges. Wonderful feats were accomplished. The railway to Kielce, and later to Radom, was ready considerably sooner than I anticipated. The extension of the second Vienna-Warsaw line which was already normal gauge, from Ostrochowa through Nowo Radomsk, in the direction of Kielce station, was begun and speedily finished.
We were also successful in reestablishing several branch lines. But we were not able to complete the bridge near Sieradz on the Radom-Kielce line, and in that way secure through communication between Polish and German railways on the west.

Thanks to the untiring work of several men on my staff, Major Drechsel and Captains von Wollow and Sperr, the communications with the West were soon in shipshape order. All difficulties were overcome so completely that operations did not suffer at all.
Had to Use Dispatch Riders
The demands for technical material for purposes of communication were heavier than in East Prussia. The Russians had destroyed the existing telegraph wires and cut down the poles. A few field telegraph wires were laid, and we had to manage as best we could with these. We were not able to exploit as we became later, after the establishment of the branch telegraph system.

ten in the war positions.

The safest means of communication of motor and dispatch riders, the latter in relays. The four wireless stations did good service. Here again I was always successful in getting a grasp of the situation and transmitting orders in time.

The inhabitants gave us no trouble. They were docile and did not resist the measures we took. The idea of calling them up for service against the Russians, which had frequently been mooted, proved impracticable.

The so-called Polish legion of the Austrian Army was mostly composed of Galician Poles, who were liable to serve in that army. Only later was the full meaning of this brought home to me.

On October 4th the main forces of the Austrian army, the 1st, 3rd and 4th armies, began the forward movement; on the 6th they crossed the Wisloka. (The combined advance was now on a front of more than 200 miles.) The Russians offered no serious resistance. By the 6th the Austrian forces had reached the river San and forced their way into Przemyśl.

Rapid Advance in Poland
On the 4th of October the Austrian 1st Army and the right wing of the 9th Army were engaged with Russian rifle brigades near Kilmartin and Opatoff (near the Vistula in Poland) and let them off very lightly. The 1st Austrian Army now shifted its centre of gravity to San, while the right wing of the 9th Army continued its advance toward the Vistula along its confluence with the San.

The 20th A. C. reached the region northwest of Kielce, and the 15th A. C. after a slight easterly march reached Kielce 24 miles from the crossing of the Vistula and concentrated there. General Frommel's corps had reached the Tomasz-Kielce line, 22 miles southeast of Lodz station line, and the 8th Cavalry Division was somewhere near Bawa (50 miles east of Lodz). Between Kielce and Thorn our frontier defence troops slowly pushed their way into Poland. We also used them on our line of communications.

Meanwhile we were receiving continuous reports that Siberian army corps were being detained at Warsaw and that strong forces were pushing along the right bank of the Vistula north of its junction with the San.

We had an impression that great enemy preparations were in preparation against the 9th Army. This confirmed me in my view of our own plans. We had to win and hold the Vistula line, while the Austrian army obtained a definite decision by attacking and defeating the Russians on the San.

If this plan succeeded the victory of Russia, on which the Austrians had counted in their strategical calculation, was assured.

I had not yet given up the hope that the Austrian army would beat the Russian east of Przemyśl and cross the San. Yet the forces holding the line north of the confluence of the San needed some, though not necessarily large reinforcements, and further concentration towards Warsaw and Lvovgorod was imperative.

At the same time the Landwehr of the 5th, 11th and 17th A. C. which had marched into northwestern Poland were brought forward to the lower Duna.

Preparations for Retreat
The communications in our rear were subjected to a special examination, for a retreat might only too easily be necessary. Preparations were made for the destruction of the railways, among other things, by placing in readiness an immense amount of explosives.

While from October 15 General von Mackensen was defending himself south of Warsaw against strong enemy attacks, the Russians attempted again and again to cross the Vistula further south. It was found necessary to push forward the 27th Infantry Division of the 20th A. C. to Kalvaria.

This division prevented the river from being crossed at this point, but the enemy corps, which had managed to place some of its units on the left bank, came out of the engagement without serious losses. The division remained in that position and was also placed under General von Mackensen's command.

The 1st Infantry Division and the Austrian 3rd Cavalry Division were posted at the mouth of the Pilica and southwards to Reszanie (25 and 35 miles southeast of Warsaw).

The Guard R. C. had taken over the investment of Ivangorod (15 miles southeast of Warsaw). This corps attempted to throw back the enemy forces which were still on the left bank of the Vistula near Kosjenice, and in this task received assistance from a brigade of the 11th A. C. which had been placed at its disposal by the army command.

Sleepless Night of Horror
I shall never forget the battle near Kosjenice. What actually happened was that four brigades were taken into the narrow bend of the Vistula, which had become a swamp owing to heavy rain. The brigade in front of Ivangorod, but soon thrown back by a strong Russian sortie. I was afraid that the Russian attack might strike into the flank of those four brigades, which were very cramped in their defence as they had no room to manoeuvre.

I did not sleep a wink that night. The next morning the position before Ivangorod did not appear so dangerous. As the Russians attacked, the fighting in the marshes near Kosjenice continued. All the troops who participated in these engagements look back on them with horror.

In consequence of the hasty march of the Guard R. C. the Landwehr corps had taken over the duty of watching the crossing near Novo Alexandria.

While the battle at Kosjenice was in full swing I received an airplane report that strong enemy forces had crossed the Vistula south of Ivangorod also. If this were the fact our position would have been exceedingly serious. The army command had no reserves of any kind at its disposal; everything had been thrown in. I was lucky for us that this report proved false. The aviator had wrongly identified the battle field near Kosjenice as lying south of Ivangorod.

Nothing particular was reported from the Landwehr corps. The Russians had been prevented from throwing a bridge across the river at Kosjenice, south of Novo Alexandria, and higher up the enemy was awaiting events.

Our plan of securing the line of the Vistula had succeeded, but Warsaw and Ivangorod still remained in the hands of the enemy, and he had effected a crossing, though a bad one, at Kosjenice, north of Ivangorod.

VARGA BEATS WILLIS IN STRAIGHT FALLS

Before a good crowd of enthusiastic fans at Victory Hall last night, Joe Varga defeated Joe Willis, of Detroit, in straight falls, taking the first in 25 minutes, 20 seconds, and the second in 22 minutes, 10 seconds.

The match was undoubtedly the best one seen here yet, both men being fast and strong, but the local man showed the benefit of his recent hard training, and was in better condition at the end of the bout than was Willis.

The match was clean and sportsmanlike all the way through, although the men mixed it enough to make it interesting and several times worked one another off the mat. Once when Varga in trying to break a hold caught a single finger on Willis' hand, the Detroit man gently retaliated by pushing his foot into Varga's face, much to the amusement of the crowd. Both men received frequent applause when they came out of apparently unbreakable holds and Willis brought the crowd to their feet when he brought Varga to the mat with a flying mare over his head, and again when he came out of a double nelson that looked like a sure fall.

In short, the match was a hummer, and through the crowd all the way through. Varga proved himself a little the best man, being blind (top man) the greater part of the time and rinside ritters expressed the belief that there is not a man of his weight in the country at the present time who can throw him like in succession.

Charles E. Fox, of Cleveland, conceded by critics to be the best light heavyweight in the United States, if not in the world, sent a telegraphic challenge to meet the winner here next Tuesday and a wife to him Wednesday morning eloped the match.

There was a good sprinkling of ladies in the audience and they appeared to enjoy the sport as well as any of the men and rooted for their favorite whenever occasion warranted.

In answer to a number of requests for recipes for combating mushrooms the following are given:

To Cure Mushrooms: Heat the mushrooms thoroughly with small portions of water and place in hot jars and seal tight.

To Cure Nettleburns: Wash and wipe mushrooms dry by using Kleano-Bleach and pack in sterilized jars. Add just new water, put one to two portions of salt to each quart, put on lid loosely and stand jars in a rack in a wash tub. Boil the salted water and water in some quantity to the top of the jars. The salted water should be kept boiling the first 15 minutes and then boil 15 minutes longer. Turn off the fire and let the jars stand in the water for 15 minutes. Lift out the jars and drain well. the altar, where the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Fasset Oswald, awaited the bridal party.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Jane Clare, sister of the bride, entered first wearing a lovely gown of rose tulle and feta, with large black hat, and carrying an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses.

She preceded the two dainty flower maids, Jean Louise Blake and Mary Jane Smith, both of Cleveland, in French ruffs of multi-colored tulle with hair bows of two-toned ribbon—yellow and orchid. Their flower were miniature bouquets of Ophelia roses.

The bride entered and walked alone to the altar. She is a lean, young woman of the true blonde type and her bridal gown of white tulle and silver lace accentuated her delicate loveliness.

A coronet of real lace held her hair well, which fell in graceful folds, framing the long train, which was caught at the feet with clusters of orange blossoms.

Her flowers were little of orange and roses, in a chosen bouquet.

An informal reception at the altar, among on Myrtlewood avenue to the immediate families followed the ceremony, and here the appointments were in pink and white, with a graceful draping of smilax, pink orchids being used in lovely adornment of the bridal table.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left in the evening for a western trip, the bride traveling in a velvet broadcloth tulle with brown velvet hat and ermine coat.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Miss Doris Phillips, Miss Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Blake, all of Cleveland, and Mrs. Harold Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas, of Troy.

Miss Edward Williamson will join the Wednesday Evening Club. The other afternoon at her home, 211 S. Street, instead of at her old try, because she probably married.

LISBON PAPER PRAISES JUDGE THOMAS

Of interest locally is the item in a Lisbon, O., paper which is here copied concerning the naming of Judge J. S. Thomas for Federal Judge and praising his handling of the Brummet-Foust trial in Lisbon.

Following is the article:

419 EGGS FROM 20 HENS IN 30 DAYS

Mr. Dougherty Got This Result In October. Plan Is Easily Tried.

"I tried Don Sung and the results were far past any expectations. I got 419 eggs in 30 days from 20 hens while my neighbors, I think, in a week could hardly lay at all before me."

This may sound too good to be true. But it is not. We'll make you the same offer we made him. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs. And is also a wonderful tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter what the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your drugist or poultry supply dealer or send 30 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Bartlett-Pager Co., 281 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Judge James S. Thomas, who is presiding at the trial of King M. Brummet and Herman Foust, has been unanimously endorsed by the Scioto county bar for Federal Judge of the Southern District of Ohio.

The vacancy on the bench resulted from the death of Judge Howard C. Hollister of the Southern Federal Judicial District.

Judge Thomas' decisions in the case now pending in court room No. 2 have been much admired for their precision and lucidity, and his thorough mastery of the law is seen in the way he elucidates any difficult and intricate question that comes before him.

Creating Criminals

Prohibitionists in their drive against YOU and your INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS, make it a violation of the Crabbe Prohibition Enforcement Act (Sec. 26) to merely POSSESS a recipe for making home-made beer or wine.

Under Section 70 a first violation of the Crabbe Act can be tried by any justice of the peace and "without a jury." This section gives such justice of the peace "final jurisdiction."

The constitution of the State of Ohio, Art. 1, Sec. 5, says: "The right of trial by jury shall be inviolate."

Are the Prohibitionists in their attack on the individual liberties of the citizens of Ohio to be considered above the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of Ohio?

The Crabbe Act, in concluding Section 70, says that the purpose in overruling Ohio's Constitution is "to enlarge the jurisdiction" of Ohio's law officers "in addition to the jurisdiction now given and provided by law in the prosecution of criminal cases."

The Crabbe Act makes prohibition enforcement MORE important than prosecutions for murder, burglary, rape and other felonies.

Setting aside completely the long established rule of law which considers a person innocent until proven guilty, the Crabbe Act throughout assumes a person guilty and makes it necessary for the suspected person to prove himself or herself innocent.

The Crabbe Act, Section 36, defines as a "bootlegger" any one who carries on his person, in his luggage or in his vehicle a bottle of intoxicating liquor, and, Section 32, makes any person a law breaker who "with knowledge or WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE" negligently carries or conveys liquor, no matter how it may be mixed with clothing or other articles. Without intent to commit an offense, without knowledge that you are committing it, you can be arrested and tried without a jury.

The Crabbe Act, Section 7, Paragraph 3, invests the Prohibition Commissioner with the powers of a "Special Legislature." It authorizes him to issue "additional rules and regulations" not inconsistent with the Crabbe Act, and says that "violations of such rules and regulations shall be deemed a violation of the Act."

What do you think, Mr. Voter?

Do you realize what the prohibitionists are trying to do to you?

Is your constitutional right to a Square Deal and Fair Play worth protecting?

HARRY BLAKE MEETS TRAGIC DEATH IN CHICAGO FIRE

Famous Local Outfielder Suffocated In Disastrous Rooming House Tragedy

Harry (Dude) Blake, former famous local ball player, met death in a rooming house fire in Chicago and perished in the flames.

Relatives learned of his death last night, but it was not until noon today that they were informed that he had come to his end so tragically.

Relative to the fire in which popular "Dude" Blake died, a special from Chicago today said:

Chicago, Ill., October 15.—One man was burned to death, another rescued by a wife in a spectacular manner from the flames, a third was carried out unconscious and some 25 other men and women fled for their lives from the great Tuesday morning when fire swept a rooming house at 630 East Twenty-Ninth street.

The man who was killed was Harry Blake, about 47 years old. He was caught in his room on the third floor of the house and suffocated by the dense volumes of smoke which poured through the entire building, though help could reach him.

Edward Guy, a negro living next door to the rooming house, made an unsuccessful attempt to rescue Blake. He had dragged him half-way across the window sill, but his hands slipped and Blake fell back into the flames.

Blake was a well-known baseball player some years ago. He was a member of the scrappy Cleveland Spiders, rivals of the Baltimore club, in the team were such well-known players as Pat Tabaneau, "Cupit" Collins, Jesse Burkett, Jimmy McAndrew, "Chief" Zimmerman and "Cy" Young.

"It must be a hot time when we went to Cleveland," said Kid Gleason

IS YOUR SKIN ABLAZE WITH FIERY ITCHINGS?

Don't Continue to Suffer Because of Wrong Treatment.

If you are one of the thousands who are afflicted with any form of irritating skin disease, you know what real torture is. You know well enough that it means to lay awake at night rubbing and scratching your raw and irritated skin, in a vain endeavor to get relief from the fiery burning.

Of course, the most serious phase of skin disease is the all too unbearable suffering caused by the fiery itching and irritation of the skin. In addition the disease causes unsightly roughness and discolorations, disfigurement and spoiling the complexion by leaving its blighting marks in its wake. Many a beautiful skin has been marred by these disorders which first appeared as tiny pimples.

Science has determined the source of all skin diseases and with this enlightenment comes the reason why the treatment heretofore has been proven such a complete failure. It has been proven that impurities in the blood cause millions of tiny disease germs to set up their attack on the surface of the skin, and in the form of pimples, boils, scaly eruptions, and itchy, burning irritations, begin their disgusting and destructive work.

Being in the blood, these disease germs can be reached only through the blood and local applications have no effect whatever. That is why salves, ointments, lotions, washes and other remedies applied to the skin can do no more than give merely temporary relief. Soon the fiery itching breaks out again, for such treatment cannot reach the source of the trouble.

If you want genuine relief from the tortures of skin diseases, lose no time in discarding all local remedies, and begin taking S. S. S. today. You will be delighted with the results, and when you are thoroughly rid of your trouble, you will praise the day you got on the right treatment. You can get S. S. S. at any drug store. ## JACKSON NEWS

JACKSON, O., Oct. 15.—John Sayers, Tolly and Frank Jackson have been arrested and arraigned on the charge of scattering melon rinds and seed on the floor and against the blackboard of the Franklin Valley school house, near Canalia, and have entered pleas of not guilty. The authorities are determined to put an end to all misbehavior in Jackson county churches and schools.

The trial of Eldon R. Ridgeway to be held at Kenton, Ohio, has been set for Thursday, Oct. 23. He is one of Jackson's merchants, and he has been indicted at Kenton for an offense which no one here believes that he committed. The indictment is based on his license number, a case of mistaken veridiction it is believed here.

Grant Hughes, wife and four children of West Milton, in Miami county, came to his old home to visit many relatives including his mother, Mrs. Emily Hughes, who is eighty-four years old, and his wife's mother, Mrs. Sarah Johnson, who is eighty-one years old.

Hon. Israel Moore Foster, representative of the Tenth District in congress, came to Coshocton to address the friends rapidly and in the zenith of his diamond career he was one of the most popular players in the game. Imbued with a winning spirit, all managers liked his conscientious work, and Blake at one time was one of the highest salaried men in baseball. He was a stocky built athlete and was always in shape to give his club his best efforts.

No artist ever painted a prettier picture than "Dude" Blake skipping gracefully across the outfield and bounding in the pellet just as it looked like it would soar over his head and win the game for the enemy. His career on the field was the personification of grace and ease, and the news of the passing away of Harry Cooper Blake will bring a pang of sorrow to the hearts of thousands of citizens of Portsmouth, where he was known better and loved best.

A shining light was removed from baseball's firmament when Harry Blake closed his eyes in everlasting sleep and his interesting baseball career became a memory.

Of an even temperament, he made

MILLS ARE OPERATING MORE FULLY

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 15.—Pittsburgh, district steel mills are operating more fully today than at any time since the nationwide strike of steel workers began, according to reports from representatives of the employers. The latest statements from the various companies indicated that hundreds of men are returning to work daily.

Reports from the Carnegie Steel Company are to the effect that 35 of its blast furnaces are operating on full time. Clarksburg Steel Company officials say their 11th mill operated last Monday, is still running full blast, while 1,500 men are reported to be at work in the plant of the Weirton Steel Company at Weirton, West Virginia. The plant is operating "100 percent," according to representatives of the concern.

The claims of the companies were met by union leaders today with the statement that the strikers are gaining ground steadily.

BIBLE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD HERE

An international Bible conference will be held at the First Baptist church commencing next Monday afternoon, Oct. 20, at 2:30 o'clock. Meetings will be held each afternoon and evening, including Friday.

The conference will be held by Rev. J. J. Vangorder of Marysville, O., and Rev. Charles E. Neighbour of Cincinnati.

Rev. Vangorder was formerly of this city and at one time was pastor of the Whitesburg Baptist church.

The conference is to be extension work of the great Philadelphia conference on Fundamentals of the Christian Faith, and material in connection with hundreds of such meetings throughout the country. People's attitudes toward many questions of religious belief and activity have been affected by the war, and Rev. Vangorder represents those who believe that the world's needs are still only adequately to be met by the renewed application of the gospel of salvation drawn from an infallibly inspired Bible, exerting its only power upon the individual heart. Rev. C. E. Neighbour is a well-known evangelist and teacher, whose father, H. E. Neighbour, is prominent as the author of many stirring pamphlets on timely subjects. The time of the night meetings will be announced at a later date.

Friends of Rev. Vangorder will be interested to learn that it is planned to have him return to Portsmouth for a week.

A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND

Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1835 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product MORLOCK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.

Ask for MORLOCK'S—Avoid Imitations

The Safety First mass meeting held under the auspices of the D. T. & L. railroad at the Crescent Opera House, was a success in every respect both in attendance and program. John H. Neuvahner, president of the First National Bank, was the chairman, and Mr. Paul C. Martin, president of the Springfield Street Railway Co., was the principal speaker.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and few others are as all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Sees Lack of Support. Another evangelist, in view of Rev. Mr. Sunday's campaign, expressed the opinion that only one out of every 25 Protestant churches of Cincinnati would take part in the Billy Sunday movement.

Referring to his disapproval of the Billy Sunday evangelistic campaign, Rev. Mr. Kapp said:

"The Federation of Churches of Christ of America, which held a convention in St. Louis three years ago, expressed disapproval of tabernacle evangelism, and its approval of evangelistic campaigns conducted by individual pastors in their own churches. For four years the Federation of Churches of Christ in Cincinnati has worked on a plan of tabernacle evangelism, and has succeeded in adding annually to Cincinnati's churches more than 1,000 members. It is very evident that no evangelistic campaign, such as could be conducted by Rev. Mr. Sunday, or any other professional evangelist, could bring about such results. I believe it is better to hold to our present plan, each man sticking to his job and doing his best."

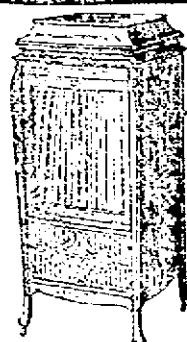

"This has been the experience of Methodist and other cities. For your headquarters would not permit a mass evangelistic tabernacle meeting."

MORE ARRESTS FOLLOW DISCOVERY OF RADICAL PLOTING AT GARY, IND.

GARY, IND., Oct. 15.—More than a dozen men were taken into custody here during the night by military intelligence authorities and were to be questioned today in connection with the investigation into alleged radical activities, including bank and anti-government plots. It also is said army intelligence agents have in their possession a list of several hundred alleged radicals, among whom a number are believed to be leaders in the radical movement. Military intelligence authorities are said to have obtained clear regarding radical activities here, even before Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the central army department, decided military control, after the situation growing out of the steel strike got beyond state officials.

Several men, including Anton Gerski, who was said to be under surveillance in connection with explosion of a bomb in the Chicago post office in September, 1918, were questioned yesterday and it was said Alexander Ivanoff, believed to be a maker of the thirty-six bombs sent from New York to prominent men throughout the country last June, was being sought. That the situation in Gary itself is believed to be under complete control by the federal soldiers here was evidenced by General Wood granting permission for the first outdoor mass meeting today, since he assumed command here.

Of the many reports that spread through the city of recent throw about their activities by the military and civil authorities, one that a widespread plot against military control had been discovered, was denied officially by Colonel W. S. Hayes, commanding troops here. That drastic measures to combat red plots uncovered, have been planned, was not denied, however.

Steel workers disavowed the "proclamation" issued by the "communist party of America," calling on the working men to wrest control from the federal troops and establish a "dictatorship."

The Indiana state building trades council also made a disavowal of the radical activities in behalf of the strike.

CLASH IN SENATE ON TREATY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—Senate reading clerk, resuming their prolonged struggle with the text of the League of Nations covenant, today passed through 181 out of 443 sections of the unanimous document, according to latest estimates. Debates and oratorical efforts of senators alike have interrupted the progress.

Yesterday the Shantung provisions of the treaty, favoring the treatment of China by Japan as authorized by the League of Nations' covenant, led to one of the most bitter forensic encounters the subject has yet precipitated. Senator Lodge's speech in favor of amendments to that section of the document, was followed by a defense of the peace conference action by Senator McChubbey, which drew fire from Senator Reed, of Missouri, and led eventually to appeals to the chair to strike out language.

Some of Senator McChubbey's remarks upon what he classed as recent demonstrations of friendship for Germany by senators, were declared unpatriotic. Still later, Senator Reed collided with Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, Democratic leader, whose bill for an embargo on munitions shipments to the allies, introduced before the United States entered the war, he said, "would have set the German cannonading at the gates of Paris."

INCREASED PRODUCTION REPORTED

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Aside from the situation at Gary, Indiana, where discharges of arrests of radicals, relations of the discovery of alleged anti-government plots by federal authorities yesterday attached nationwide attention, the industrial conditions in the Chicago steel district showed no material change in the past 24 hours.

From many of the plants through the district came reports of increased production with many striking employees returning to work.

TRYING A NEW REMEDY

S many automobile accidents are occurring at Huntington that the city is proposing the adoption of new traffic laws. Two of these carrying something of the novel, that cars shall be parked parallel and not triangular with the side walk and the speed limit be raised to twenty miles.

The first thing Huntington does in an unwonted situation is to try after new laws, it not coming to her any more than it does to other towns, that enforcement of what she already has ought to be tried out diligently and unflinchingly and their efficacy or ineffectiveness demonstrated. So we have got to tell it, as we have told other towns and states that a law is not self-operating. You have got to put the punch of vigilance, courage and diligence of authorities into it to make it go. We venture to say that the lack at Huntington and not more ordinances. And further, with new and elaborate ordinances she will have no more enforcement than she has now.

It is always that way. Why down here we have automobile accidents, not a hundredth thought of what under conditions we should have, a kind Providence taking us in special care and saving us from the natural consequences of our own foolishness. He is not going to be with us forever, however, and a wise grand jury recommended the other day that some means be taken to subdue the wild violators on Seoto Trail. Promptly the prosecuting attorney issued a proclamation warning the whole tribe he was preparing to appoint a motorcycle cop, about the first of October to run 'em down and they would be severely dealt with. The first of October has come and vanished by two full weeks and there is no motor cop and likewise no severe penalties strewn about, which, it goes without saying, nobody ever thought there would be.

For the people about this man's town have long noted that a proclaiming official is like a barking dog, there is no bite in him.

RATHER SHRINKS US UP

W HEN we read of airplanes flying from New York to San Francisco in three days it rather shrivels up the country and it does not appear so vast to us.

Still it is a large land. The airplanes covered a distance of 2,710 miles, air line, from coast to coast, but that is not the greatest breadth of the nation. Several states lie east of New York and on the Pacific the land juts out far west of the Golden Gate. From Eastport, the tip of Maine, to Cape Mendocino, California, is a good 3,500 miles.

The King of Belgium has right now an acute perception of this wonderful domain. A short time ago he entered New York, when a September sun was glowing down bright and warm. A few days later he felt the upping air of Minnesota and soon was amid the mountain snows of the Rockies. Now he is in the ever glorious climate of Oregon and will soon turn his face to the sunshine of California.

Yes, it is a wonderful country, not because of its great size but in spite thereof. It has no large segregated populations, speaking tongues alien to each other and with thought and ambitions antagonistic to each other. It has its cordial rivalries, but they are friendly. A common tongue and a common nature ties and binds all sections together. Washington hails New York as the coming great city of the earth, New York boasts of Oregon's apples, eats them and ships them all over the world. Florida invites Chicago and Minneapolis to come and spend the winter with her and the whole country goes to see the marvels of the Yellowstone park, the Grand Canyon and the Yosemite valley, all American, a bit different to give local pride, but all making for the country's glory and union of the country.

REAL ARTISTS TO APPEAR

MUSICAL lovers in Portsmouth are anxiously awaiting the appearance of the celebrated American baritone, Oscar Seagle and Barbara Maurel, noted prima donna, who are to appear at the High School Auditorium on Friday evening of this week as the first number of the Popular All Star Concert Series. Through an engagement made by Mr. James Distel, of the Distel Furniture Co., the concert was arranged for the music lovers of Portsmouth and will be furnished the patrons under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

There is no question as to the character of the entertainments to be provided. Mr. Seagle and Miss Maurel are recognized artists and have toured the world and scored decided successes.

Portsmouth has secured the Popular All Star Concert Series through a fortunate circumstance, made so by the itinerary that permitted a stop over to break long jumps. The company is hooked in all the larger cities of the country and has the unqualified endorsement of the country's most noted musical artists. It is hoped the people of Portsmouth will avail themselves of the opportunity afforded through the talent offered by the concert company.

NEITHER VANISHED NOR VANQUISHED

LITTLE has been heard for quite three years of Villa, the Mexican revolutionist, marauder, murderer, or what ever it may come to mind to call him.

He has, it unhappily turned out, neither disappeared, nor been subdued. Right now he has all Mexico awoke with a proclamation, in which he states he will for the time being cease any activities in the border states and move directly on to the capital city of Mexico with the express idea of seizing President Carranza, whiskers and all.

Rumor is that all during his quietude he has been organizing and equipping an army and that in November he will begin his march south with a force of 100,000 men really prepared and set up to fight. Should this prove in part true he will present a serious problem. The present Carranza government seems to lack vigor and it has no confidence and no support in the outside world, which in the main would not find its downward unbecome. For Carranza missed his opportunity during the war. His best and most prudent course would have been to have adopted, at least a friendly attitude towards the Allies, but instead of that he became so entangled with the German government that the Allies came to look upon him as a secret enemy. This feeling has been deepened by his course since. When Villa comes to press him hard, he will perform make solemn assurances of friendliness, hoping for aid of some sort, but he is likely to speak to deaf ears.

Dublin has the widest street in the world in its main thoroughfare and, strange to say, it has either two names or none at all. Ask one wayfarer what's its name and he will tell you "O'Connell," ask another and he'll reply "Sackville." "O'Connell" is, of course, Irish, while "Sackville" is English and imposed on the natives, who refuse to accept it.

No, we wouldn't say we are exactly proud of this October weather, but there is some distinction, not to say quality, in being the worst.

THE MARRIED AN AVERAGE MAN

The direct result of Mrs. Hast's romantic but valuable advice as to managing marriage "by beginning right" has done one thing for me already. It has put stench into me.

Tonight Charles Helton dined with us. He and Jim announced that they would open their New York office in January.

"Helton and I will have to go there for a day or two to get things in shape," said Jim, as I served coffee. "I may as well rent an apartment for us, Ann, while I'm there."

Visions of Athena Hast rose before my mind's eye. I took courage from the mere thought of her, and replied calmly: "Thank you, dear, for wanting to save me trouble. But I shouldn't wish you to take an apartment I had never even."

"But I know what we want. It will save time and money. If we wait until we get there we'll have to stay at a hotel till you make up your mind and get the place ready."

I kept my voice smooth and steady. "You may know just what you want, Jimmie, but remember, I've never been to New York. I need time to look around, inquire about rents and locations and choose rooms that suit me."

"Of course she wants to see her little nest, you old poop," put in Helton, with an oily smile at me. "You can stay at the Waldorf for a week. I'll give Mrs. Salberry a glimpse of a new side of life. I'll let her see never seen anything quite like 'peacock alley' at the Waldorf."

"You're not counting the cost, either of you," said Jim.

I recalled my recollection with Jim on the subject of income, allowance, etc., and again asserted myself.

"I don't know whether we can or cannot afford it. You've never told me yet, Sir James, just what funds our wealth possesses. I shall have to know, sir, before I choose our living quarters."

Jim looked annoyed, as I feared he would. But I thought hard of what Mrs. Hast had said—that a young and pretty woman can make a man see anything she wants him to—and I remembered my eyes, hair and complexion!

WEST SIDE WAGING WAR ON SPOONERS

West Side residents have helped in the campaign to put a stop to automobile parties parking their cars along the side of the road, and in private driveway and roads leading from the main highway in the evenings. The arrest was made on the West Side and others are to follow there until the practice is stopped.

Several nights ago a machine was parked in the Bethany Baptist church yard at Hixtown and a report reached Constable James McDaniel that two couples occupied the machine. Constable McDaniel with four men went to the church yard about ten o'clock and found one couple in the yard and the other couple still in the machine.

The young man in the machine took to his heels and was chased a long distance before captured. No charge was placed against the girl, who appeared to be about 17 years of age. The man gave his name as Grant Brown and the girl her name as Gertrude Smith. Brown gave his occupation as a stockworker.

The girl in the machine appeared to be about 16 or 17 years of age according to McDaniel. The man in the machine claimed he was married and had several children. No charges were placed against this couple. Brown, taken before Justice R. R. Allen, offered Brown $10 and costs and dismissed the entire party with a warning.

When Mayor Kane in police court this morning inquired of Luther Baker, young stove-maker, arrested for intoxication and fighting, where he secured his liquor, the latter had a bad memory, but after the count placed him with a fine of $25, he suddenly awakened and told of buying the spirits from Tom Macarson, at West End cradle.

Macarson was brought in and strenuously denied the charge, but the mayor held that he was guilty and booked him for a fine of $50 and costs. He was sent to the county jail with a charge of intoxication and fighting.

Macarson, the court declared was the bootlegger, and said that evidence against him was sufficient to convict of peddling liquor. The mayor then suspended $250 for Luther Baker's fine and taxed $250 for Luther Baker's costs. The latter and Killer Baker the co-accused. The latter was charged with intoxication and fighting.
